This is a listing of print theatre journals that are currently subscribed to by Cook Library. All bound journals are classed by a Library of Congress call number and shelved in the STACKS area of the library on the 4th and 5th floors. Most of these titles are located on the fourth floor of the library in the "P" stacks areas. Check the Journal List link on the Cook Library web page to find the call number of a bound journal. The very latest issues of a journal that have not yet been bound can be found in the Periodical Reading Room on the 2nd floor of the library.

Journals may not be checked out and must be used within Cook Library. There are photocopiers on all floors of Cook Library. Please be aware of copyright regulations as you photocopy any material from these journals.

Select Drama from the list to see titles and access electronic issues.

Serials/ and Annuals

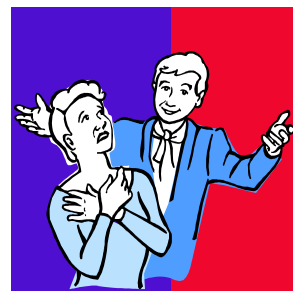

Serials are books or journals that are published sporadically throughout the year, rather than on a regular schedule. Annuals are collections of writings that are published once in a year.

Except for the latest editions of the two titles marked as REF, these titles are kept with the book collection on the 4th floor of Cook Library. Here are the theatre serials titles along with their call numbers so that you can find them on the shelf.
