

Using Theatre Databases

Reference Department
Albert S. Cook Library

Visit the Cook Library Homepage to start searching for journal articles on topics in theatre history. Databases will index theatre journals with scholarly articles and sometimes deliver the full text of the article right to your desktop.

Open the Cook Library web page at: <http://cooklibrary.towson.edu/>

Find: Books | Articles | Course Reserves

THE BIG READ: FAHRE

Towson University's Albert S. Cook

Go to Find: Articles then open Subject Gateways, then select "Theater" from subject list

Choose a database to search after opening Theater link

Article Databases (18 items)

Use these searching tools to identify articles in journals, newspapers, and other sources. All the databases provide citations to the material, many provide abstracts and many provide access to the full-text of the articles.
